y The entire Parish of Kidderminster, part of which is in Lower Halfshire Hundred, contains 20,753 Inhabitants, and 11,160 Acres. The Return for the Borough includes 48 navigators, employed in repairing the canal, and states that 21 persons have emigrated since 31st December 1840.—For the Parliamentary Borough of Kidderminster, see Appendix.

z The total of the City of Worcester will be more correctly seen by reference to the Appendix, the limits of the City and of the Parliamentary Borough being co-extensive. Difficulties in the arrangement occur oftener in the County of Worcester than elsewhere, eleven Parishes being insulated in adjacent Counties, viz., Edvin Loach, in Herefordshire; Dudley, in Staffordshire; Alderminster, Shipton-on-Stour, Tidmington and Tredington, in Warwickshire; and Cutsdean, Daylesford, Evenload and Icomb, in Gloucestershire. Seven other Parishes extend out of the County, and upwards of thirty out of the Hundred or franchise in which they are principally situate. Moreover, several Hundreds are much intermixed among themselves, and with the City of Worcester.

a The Parish of St. John Bedwardine is partly in Lower Oswaldslow Hundred, where it is wholly returned.

b The entire Parish of Claines, which extends into Lower Oswaldslow Hundred, contains 6,395 Inhabitants. A larger portion of the Parish of Claines than was included in 1831, together with the Tything of Whistones, is now entered in the City of Worcester, being within the extended boundary thereof. The Return for the Parish includes 28 persons in barges, and that for the Tything of Whistones 242 persons in the County Gaol.

c The Parish of St. Clement, which in 1831 was partly returned in Lower Oswaldslow Hundred, is now entirely within the extended limits of the City, and is so entered.

d The Return for the Parish of St. Helen includes 25 persons in the City Gaol.

e The Parish of St. Martin extends into Lower Oswaldslow Hundred, where the greater part of the area is returned; the entire Parish (including 202 persons in Worcester Union Workhouse and 14 in boats) contains 5,083 Inhabitants.

f The Return for the Parish of St. Nicholas includes 99 persons in the Infirmary.

g The Parish of St. Peter extends into Lower Oswaldslow Hundred, where the area is mostly returned; the entire Parish (including 88 persons in barges) contains 4,575 Inhabitants. Part of the Parish of St. Peter here included belongs to the Lower Division of Oswaldslow Hundred.

* The Area of England is 50,387 square Statute Miles (exclusive of Wales), and, consequently, 32,247,680 Acres; while the Area herein assigned to the several Counties amounts to no more than 31,770,615 Acres; but no attempt to reconcile this apparent discrepancy (of one sixty-seventh part) has been deemed allowable.

† The Column of Ages of Persons 20 Years and upwards includes the number of persons whose Ages were not specified in the Returns, the Total of which, for each County, is given in the Enumeration Abstract of Ages.

‡ The Column headed "Born Elsewhere" includes the number of persons whose places of Birth were not specified in the Returns.

Note.—Upon final correction of the above Summary, the totals of Bedford, Berks, Bucks, and Essex, in the Columns of Ages under 20, and 20 Years and upwards, differ from the same totals printed at pp. 5, 12, 19, and 97, respectively, although in the aggregate they agree; the totals of Bucks and Huntingdon, in the Column of Area, differ from the same totals in pp. 19 and 126; the former by an omission at p. 19 of 60 acres appertaining to the Hundred of Buckingham; the latter by an omission at p. 125 of 560 acres belonging to the Parish of Papworth St. Agnes.
